FACTS.

EAST ST. LOUIS, with a population of 40,600, has had more manuturing plants and factories in the last year than ST. LOUIS, with 650,600 people. ARMOUR PACKING CO. is building a $1,000,000 plant, to employ 2,500 men. This means 10,000 additional population, other enterprises now under way add 5,000 more. This means over $5,000 people by the end of 1902. The WORLD'S FAIR will benefit East St. Louis as much as St. Louis in proportion. This means over ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND POPULATION. What will it do for Real Estate, especially in business center? DOUBLE THE PRICE, OF COURSE. Buy now before the advance.

EAST SIDE RAILWAY IS REPORTED SOLD.

Clark Bros. Said to Have Paid Nearly $2,000,000 for East St. Louis Line.

The report was current in East St. Louis vesterday that the East St. Louis Electric Railway had been sold by the Terminal Association to Clark Brothers of Philadelphia. It was stated that the price paid for the property is between $1,500,000 and $2,-(00,000. Representatives of the Philadelphia street railway magnates inspected the sheds, power-house and lines of the road yester-

Julius S. Walsh, president of the Terminal Association, admitted that the deal was on, and stated that the price offered was a large one, but said that the deal had not been consummated as yet, and probably will not be before the first of next week. He was unwilling to make public the de-tails of the sale at the present time. It is said that John Bromlette is slated for su-

A noticeable feature in the recent disturbances of the stock market has been the absence of speculation in the bank stocks. Thus class of securitles appears to have dropped out of the list of mobile stocks. Throughout they have been strong, and held with such confidence that the owners have not liquidated to any extent, even when the market was most troubled. Third National has been especially strong.

Exposition Property Sale.

Exposition Property Sale.

The sale of the Exposition property under deed of trust on February 25, is being locked forward to with considerable interest in local financial circles. A representative of the Bondholder's Committee staated yesterday that he had assurances that there would be at least three bidders at the sale. In the absence of any other purchaser, he said, the bondholders will buy in the property, paying for it in bonds, of which they control nearly all that are outstanding.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the United Railways Company of St. Louis will take place Monday, March 2, at the office of the company, room 86. Security building. The principal business of the meeting will be the election of eleven directors. In accordance with the laws of Missouri, no person can vote who has not owned his stock for thirty days prior to the election. Transfer books of the company will be closed February 25, and opened March 4. Exposition Property Sale.

"When a landlady takes young men as boarders, it is not a safe proposition if they have marriageable daughters," said Mr.
Sagignac yesterday, "In my case it was only a question of knowing Miss Muller long enough to propose. To-day we decided to set married, and had the ceremony performed, and the fact that we are still living with Mrs. Muller is evidence that we have been forgiven. Mrs. Muller entertained friends in our honor to-night."

Excitement Among Passengers,

& T. train No. 5, which collided with a freight train which was being switched by a Wiggins Ferry Company crew at the foot of Benton street shortly after midnight yesterday morning. No one was hurt, but the passenger engine was damaged slightly and one of the freight cars was smashed in the side. Beyond this no damage was done.

The sudden stop of the passenger train joiled the passengers and some of them ran out to see what the trouble was. The damage was so slight, however, that the train continued on its way without much delay. Charles Blackburn of Franklin Junction was the engineer in charge of the No. 167 Arlington avenue was at the third its of the freight engine.
